RELIEF COME AT LAST.

J. WISNER'S Washing Machine, Patented Sept. 26th, 1854, is a large tub with zinc fitted on the bottom, also on the underside of the rubber. It stands on a stool, and weighs about 25 lbs; is simple and handy and has been thoroughly examined and tried by thousands at the West within the past year, who pronounce it to be the best labor saver ever offered to the public. It has been tested sufficiently long to prove that whenever it has been used properly, it will tell a better story for itself than I can communicate. Give it a trial, and you will be entirely satisfied of its superior merit.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
NO. 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST.,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superor facilities for obtaining patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse, CHAS. MASON," Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,"
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. P. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S
ROSE MARY

Combines everything required to give richness, beauty and elegance to the hair. It removes dandruff, and relieves headache. To force the growth, to prevent falling off, and restore hair to bald places, it has been used with positive success. It is presented to the public in an open, candid manner, stating, as the name indicates the leading ingredients, viz:—

Rosemary and Castor Oil,
both common and well known articles.

The following persons can be found, and are well known. We give a few extracts from their opinions about the

ROSEMARY.

ABRAM A. TRUAX, Esq., Rotterdam, N. Y., writes—"Am 75 years of age, and was bald 35 years; have used two bottles of your Rosemary, and my hair is now two inches long."

REV. SYLVANUS COBB, Boston Mass.—"We had rather pay for it than have other preparations for nothing," &c.

MRS. D. TAFT, Cambridge, Mass.—"I have used your Rosemary with great success in keeping my hair black, as age was turning it fast."

MR. DANIEL B. CONNOR, Boston, Mass.—"Eight months ago I was bald—my hair is now long and healthy—I know your Rosemary has forced it to grow," &c.

OSSIAN E. DODGE, Esq., Vocalist, now of Cleveland, Ohio—"It gives a rapid growth and dark glossy texture, and does not soil the hat or pillow in the least; I know of nothing so valuable for the hair."

FRANCIS ADAMS, Esq, Boston, Mass.—"It is the best thing for children's hair—the ladies are delighted with it," &c.

REV. C. W. DENISON, Buffalo, N. Y.—"I find it excellent for the hair."

MRS. L. SWEENY, Boston, Mass.—"It restored my hair to bald head, and from grey to black color," &c.

HON. C. HUNT, Lowell, Mass.—"To remove dandruff, and keep the hair moist and glossy, we have never found anything so good."

M. HOFFMAN, Esq., (Editor of German Weekly,) Boston, Mass., and his wife Eva, say—"It causes hair to grow vigorously—gives beauty and splendor—is better than European articles," &c.

C. H. STOCKING, Esq. (Trinity College,) Hartford, Ct.—"By using it my hair turned from a sandy to a brown color; it was naturally dry, but it is now moist."

A. F. WOOD, Chemist, New Haven, Conn.—"I saw a fair head of very dark hair on a man that six weeks ago was bald. He had used nothing but your Rosemary," &c.

REVERE HOUSE, Boston, July, 1857. "I had no more hair on my head than an infant, seven months ago. It is now thick, healthy, growing rapidly, and of a fine, dark color. I can positively say that J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S Rosemary, obtained at 27 Tremont street, opposite the Museum, has produced this change."—SARAH J. LORD.

[illegible] OF FLORENCE.

III.

They went back from [illegible] silent and amazed. [illegible] spoke to none of them. When they passed the city gates, he turned away alone. Bitter against all the world, bitterest against Max Rolf, he wandered the whole day solitary—so wildly and so far, that that night Lucia watched for half an hour alone, before, travel-stained at last, and weary, and with his indignant boyish shame burning still upon his face, he came to their accustomed meeting-place.

She was waiting for him, and she came with her hands held out to welcome him.

"Ah, mio bene, you should have come [illegible] not late to-night!" was all her reproach to him.

Her voice and her look in a single instant melted him.

"Anima mia! Mia vita!" he cried passionately; and, as he took her in his arms, the burden of his disappointment seemed to take wings. She was the same to him; and so all else on earth might change! She was the same to him; or, rather, she was more than she had ever been. In the burning warmth of her Italian nature, she passionately pledged her faith to him that night anew, and bound herself to belong to him for life and death; a solemn pledge, solemnly spoken beneath the bare arch of heaven, borne witness to by silent burning stars.

They had met late, and they stayed long together, forgetting the hour and everything but one another. It was almost an hour later than their accustomed time, when they paused at last for their final parting at the familiar porch.

She put her hands in his, and said, "Good-night!" They stood a moment beneath the arch, with their faces to the open air: when turned them round, they lifted their eyes to find that a figure had come between them and the open door. They saw it together. One instant, and a cry had broken from the girl's lips: it was her father!

"Who are you, stealing in like a thief? Turn your face round! Ripardo!" the old man cried.

The boy was no coward; he came forward proudly.

"I was not stealing in, signor. I am no thief," he said.

"What are you doing at this hour, and with my daughter?"

He had drawn the girl rudly to his side. Giovanni took one step, and cast his arm about her.

"I love her!" he cried passionately. "I love her, and she is mine! Signor, you shall not part us! She is mine by all that makes oaths sacred in the sight of God and man!"

There was a flush on michael Rossi's face, and a keen fire in his eye; but he stood motionless and erect; an old, stern, stately man!

"She is mine, not yours," he slowly answered; "she is my daughter, and a child. She is my daughter, I say; and Michael Rossi's daughter"—the words rang out trumpet-toned in their keen, pitiless pride—"is no wife for an unknown boy! Lucia!" he cried, "let go his hand!"

She let it go; with a proud impulse the boy loosed his embrace. She cowered back, and they were parted. Rossi seized her arm and drew her to his side.

Then, standing alone, Giovanni looked at her till, sudden, swift, stronger than pride, the passionate yearning for her leapt up in him again. Once more he cried aloud.

"Oh, stay!" he wildly pleaded; "Signor Rossi, give her back to me! I will work for her—I will win a name—I will wait; but I cannot live without her! Lucia!"—he stretched out his arms out to her—"come! Lucia, Lucia!" he cried, "come!"

The opened arms were towards her. She saw them, she bent, she wavered; she flung away the hands that bound her, and leapt to meet them. Something like a curse broke from the old man's lips. Shuddering as she heard it, she looked back one moment.

"Father, I am coming! Wait!" she cried.

Then she turned again, and coiled her hands into her lover's hair, and wildly kissed his lips, and passionately cried—

"Be true to me! oh, be true to me!—trust to me! forever and forever!"

And in one moment more his cry broke desolate upon the air; for she was fled.

"You cross my threshold, and you see my daughter no more, young madman!" Michael Rossi slowly said. "I hold my peace, for reproaches are vain. Go—and forget her!"

Then the door was closed, and the boy was left alone. Alone, with his wild despair—his bitter desolation—hopelessly prostrate upon the ground where the girl's feet had stood.

The morning's sun beheld him on his road from Florence. He set forth without hope or aim, and all day long he wandered. High upon the hills he climbed; all weary though he was, he never rested till the sun was going west.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1859.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS,
EASTERN DISTRICT,
THOMAS DAVIS,
OF NORTH PROVIDENCE.

Henry C. Carey.

America furnishes so few examples of men of ability who are content to devote themselves to the thorough study of political science, and to wait patiently for the reward of their labors in their slow effect upon the popular mind, that we have cause to rejoice when the tardy justice of his countrymen does honor to a thinker like Henry C. Carey.

Mr. Carey has for years stood alone among American statesmen in his devotion to the principles of protection, and in his abnegation of personal advancement. With abilities that might have made him one of the most popular leaders of party politics in the Union, had he consented to follow the direction of the popular breath, he has steadfastly followed his own deep settled convictions. To him alone is it due that the doctrines of protection to American industry have not been entirely forgotten in the time of their disfavor with the ruling powers. While other former advocates of those doctrines have been content to forget them in their struggle for place, he has quietly bided his time, and he now begins to see the reward of his labors in the returning favor with which these doctrines are regarded, or rather in the necessity which forces their acceptance upon the country after so long a period of misguidance.

Rarely does a letter of compliment contain so much truth as that in which the citizens of Luzern County Pa., asked him to be their guest:

"We believe that your labors mark an era in the science of political economy. To your researches and lucid arguments are we indebted for the explosion of the absurdities of Malthus, Say, and Ricardo, in regard to the inability of the earth to meet the demands of a growing population. American industry owes you a debt which cannot be repaid, and which it will ever be proud to acknowledge. Regarding you as one of the foremost champions of the great doctrine of protection, which lies at the foundation of our national prosperity, and is especially identified with the leading interests of our honored Commonwealth, we shall be happy to welcome you in our midst, and we therefore cordially invite you to name a day when it will suit your convenience to pay a visit to this region, prior to your departure for a foreign land."

We coincide most heartily in the comments made by the Philadelphia North American upon this spontaneous tribute to Mr. Carey:

"In the spirit that prompted this invitation, signed as it is by leading Democrats—Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton—an earnest that Pennsylvania will hereafter, however she may be divided on other questions, be united in regard to her own great interests; and it is gratifying to find, among other evidences of the fact, this cordial recognition of the merits and services of one who has labored so long and earnestly in behalf of those interests. As a writer on Social Science, Mr. Carey confessedly stands at the very head of the modern Economists; and we have within a day or two seen the opinions of distinguished persons, eminently qualified to form an accurate judgment in the premises, to the effect that the work he has just completed is by far the ablest, the most lucid, and the most convincing on the subject that has ever been given to the press."

It is not only in Pennsylvania, but throughout the North that the public mind is again awakened to the necessity of returning to a true American policy in this matter. It will be one of the great issues in the next Presidential campaign. We know not that Mr. Carey has any personal ambition to gratify in this matter. His whole course has shown a desire to act as a private citizen and a sound thinker without the trammels of office; but there certainly is no name whose presentation to the people for either the first or the second honor in their gift would reflect so much credit on the free North. Hoping as we do to see protection made a part of the Republican platform in 1860, we hope to support a ticket bearing the name of Henry C. Carey as one of the standard-bearers of that platform and as representing the just reward given by a grateful country to one of its truest friends.

☞ We have received several communications on the subject touched upon by the following correspondent, but must decline publishing more than this one, many of the articles are too long and possibly too severe upon our contemporary:

MR. HAMMOND. I have read your reply to the Providence Journal's notice of your article in regard to the Election Returns, and with unprejudiced feelings, and feel called upon to say, that I think the Journal has mixed a little too much gall with their wormwood, as I cannot perceive that you have been in the least unfaithful in your part of the bargain, which it appears was made and long continued between the two offices. The Journal, with some egotism, concludes by informing you that, at the next election, no arrangements (on which reliance can be placed,) will be made with [illegible]

[illegible] CAP INTELLIGENCE.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

At a special church meeting of the North Baptist Church in this city, held on Friday evening last, G. DOUGLAS BREWERTON, Esq., of this city, was duly authorised to preach the gospel as a licentiate of the Baptist Church; he having, in accordance with the custom of that denomination, preached acceptably on the Friday evening previous.

Mr. Brewerton is well known in this community. He is the son of Major Henry Brewerton, of the U. S. Engineers, who was formerly stationed at this city, and was for many years Superintendant of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. Mr. Brewerton was for six years an officer in the U. S. Army; after which he resigned his post, to devote himself especially to literary and artistic pursuits. He has gained considerable reputation for the merit of his compositions, the best known of which were a series of articles entitled "A Ride with Kit Karson," published in Harper's Magazine, and a book entitled "The War in Kansas." He has also for some six years past been connected, as special correspondent, in Kansas, this city, and other parts of the country, with the New York Herald and other leading papers in New York, St. Louis, and other cities. His pictures are to be found on the walls of some of our best private galleries. As a politician, he has stumped several of the States for Mr. Buchanan and his administration; but we must be permitted to express the opinion, that his talents are now much better employed than in the upholding of a party to which we are conscientiously opposed.

We understand that Mr. Brewerton, although he may be engaged in preaching in answer to calls, in other cities, will still make this place his home for some months to come. We wish him "God speed" in the glorious undertaking before him.

"SETTING" A BROKEN NECK.—"Uncle Sylvester," better known, perhaps, as "the man of few words," is responsible for the following, we must acknowledge, rather "tough" story. We will preface it, however, by repeating an assertion we have heard made, that a dislocated neck could be set without difficulty—provided it was done immediately after the dislocation. But to the story:

A number of years ago, Mr. Job Sweet, one of the patriarchs of the present generation of Sweets, "natural bone-setters," had a bill of long standing against a man whom, for the sake of a name, we will call Brown, living over on Narragansett, which bill, by the way, he had found great difficulty in collecting. One day he espied the aforesaid Brown on a stack in a field, and made up to him after the most approved method of creditors in pursuit of their money. Brown seeing him coming, made haste to come down, whether "with joy to greet him," or to escape a dun, deponent saith not; but in his hasty descent, he lost his balance, and coming down on his head, dislocated his neck. Under ordinary circumstances he would have been "a goner," but Sweet coming up at that moment and taking in at a glance the man's imminent danger and his own opportunity, quick as thought seizing the head with one hand and the shoulders with the other, shoved the bones again to their places, exclaiming as he did so, "There, you old fool; get up and pay me that bill!" It is needless to add that Brown "planked the tin" on the spot. Sweet was ever after fond of relating the story, always asserting that he should never have got his pay, "if old Brown hadn't broke his neck."

CLARD'S INDELIABLE PENCIL FOR MARKING CLOTHING.—Our readers will observe an advertisement of this new invention, in another column. By private testimonals and there favorable notices of it by the press, we are inclined to believe it to be every thing that it is represented by its proprietor and his agents.

BILLIARD MATCH AT DETROIT FOR $10,000. The great billiard match between Michael Phelan, of New York and Seereiter of Detroit was finished on Wednesday, Phelan winning the game by 96 points.

The match was for $10,000, two thousand points up. Seerieter has shown himself a first rate billiard player. The game is considered a very close one, considering the number of points played. The above reached us by a private telegraph dispatch early this morning.

The following are the details of the games as sent on by telegraph:—

At 8 p. m. the parties were just turning the first string; Seereiter 110, Phelan 596

On the fourth hundred Seereiter's score was 306, Phelan's 269.

10:40 p. m.—Phelan 504, Seereiter 400. Phelan's friends jubilant.

11 p. m.—Phelan 964, Seereiter 673.

12:30 a. m.—Great excitement now prevails. Seerieter has just made a run of 157. The game stands—Phelan 1,147, Seereiter 1,022.

1:30 a. m.—Great excitement. Phelan 1,282, Seereiter 1,255.

2:30 a. m.—Phelan 1,387, Seereiter 1,583.

3:05 a. m.—Phelan 1,613, Seereiter 1,577.

4 a. m.—Phelan 1,838, Seereiter 1,732.

4:40 a. m.—Phelan 1,839; Seereiter 1,847.

5:30 a. m.—The match is finished, and Phelan the victor—he beating Seereiter by 96 points.

During the playing there were three large runs made, as following:—Phelan 157 and 129, Seereiter 150.

The North China Herald states that a newspaper published at Shanghai in Chinese by the missionaries, has attained a circulation of 700. The people buy it week by week, paying cash, and each purchaser reads it aloud.

John Cockburn, of New Orleans, has brought a suit against the owners of the late steamer Princess, for damages to the amount of $50,000, for personal injuries received by the explosion of that boat.

The Sickles Case.

TWELFTH DAY. Saturday.

Peter Cagger of Albany was examined in order to allow him to return home. His testimony was as follows:—I am a member of the Bar, residing in the City of Albany; have known Mr. Sickles twelve years and upward; saw Mr. Key but once, in June, 1858; I was introduced to him by letter from Mr. Sickles, and engaged him in a cause as counsel.

To the Court—I retained Mr. Key's services on the ground of that letter of introduction.

Not cross examined.

The remainder of the day was consumed in arguing the admissibility of evidence as to the adultery.

THIRTEENTH DAY. Monday.

After long argument by the District-Attorney, Judge Crawford decided that the evidence tending to prove adultery is admissible, but reserving the question of what the legal effect of the admission may be, the point to which most of the arguments of the prosecution were directed. The Judge's opinion is mainly based on the right of the defense to have the evidence already given explained. As in Jarboe's case, the result is unexpected by all, and gave general satisfaction. The Jury was evidently gratified. Mrs. Brown resumed the stand, and testified to having seen Key and Mrs. Sickles several times enter the assignation house, separately and together. Mrs. Sickles inquired of her as to the house before hiring. A white string was usually tied on the blind. On cross-examination. Mrs. Brown said she saw Key and Mrs. Sickles go into the house thrice by the front door and once by the back. She saw Key three or four times get wood in the yard and take it into the house, and presently smoke ascended from the chimney. Then came the white string. Saw no one else enter. She lives in the next house but one.

Charles Mann examined by Mr. Ratcliffe—My business is that of a policeman; I am acquainted with the location of the house in Fifteenth street, was in the house; Mr. Magruder and yourself (Ratcliffe) and a third person were present; found this shawl there, a pair of gloves, a comb and some cigarrettes; saw some chunks of wood there; found a shawl in the bed in the front room; this is the shawl; I showed it to Mrs. Brown, the last witness; Mrs. Brown went, to the house of Mrs. Sickles for the purpose of recognizing her; took her there at your (Ratcliff's) instance.

To Mr. Brady—On the first floor of the house there were two rooms and a kitchen; they were furnished in plain style; there was a carpet, and chairs, tables and a book case on the second story; there are two rooms, communicating with each other; in the back room of the second story there was a bedstead and bedding, basin and pitcher, and perhaps a bureau; I got into the house over the fence, there was a colored man inside who admitted me; I took the key from side room door and found it opened the front door; I unlocked it to admit Mr. Magruder and Mr. Ratcliffe, the attorneys of Mr. Sickles requested me to go to this house; never received anything for it, nor have I been promised anything.

Mr. Ratcliffe, one of the counsel, was placed on the stand and related the circumstances of the visit to the house.

Mr. Brady—Describe what you found there.

Witness—We found up there a bed all in confusion, and on that bed we found a shawl; thinking I had seen such a shawl in possession of Mr. Key, it was suggested that the officer take charge of the shawl; looking about we found a pair of gloves on the mantel and a parcel of cigarettes that we took charge of; the gloves and comb were found there; cannot say that this is the same shawl, but it is like it; it was handed to Mr. Mann, and he was requested to take charge of it; I think Mr. Key resided in C street, about a mile from the house in Fifteenth street; Mr. Key was a widower with four or five children; they had been in my house; Mrs. Key has been dead some four or five years.

John M. Seeley recalled and examined by Mr. Brady.

Witness—My attention was first called to the visits to the house in 15th street by Mr. Key and a lady between the middle of January and the begining of February last; noticed Mr. Key and a lady go there frequently; the last occasion was on the 15th of February; am not prepared to say how long they stayed on that occasion; perhaps one or one and a half hours; the lady came out the way she went in, but I did not see how Key came out; also saw her pass into the house the Wednesday or Thursday before Key's death; she passed in by the back gate; did not see Mr. Key there that day; cannot state how long she remained, for I was compelled to leave on my own business.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Seeley, wife of John M. Seeley, testified to seeing Mr. Key and Mrs. Sickles go into the house in Fifteenth street.

Mr. James Ginnity testified to seeing Mr. Key and Mrs. Sickles together in Fifteenth street.

John B. Haskins testified to visiting Mr. Sickles's house and finding Mr. Key and Mrs. Sickles during Mr. Sickles's absence eating salad and drinking wine together.

A NEW AND IMPORTANT IDEA.—The public has recently been painfully aroused by the constant advertisements in the papers of "MISSING INDIVIDUALS." Day after day people leave their homes for business purposes or pleasure, and suddenly disappear, leaving behind them no traces. Many of these cases have baffled all the skill and cunning of our detectives; and families, plunged in grief, live on in doubt and terror.

FRANK LESLIE has suggested an idea from which the most important results may arise—namely, the publication in his "ILLUSTRATED NEWSPAPER" of the portraits and descriptions of these missing people. The portraits and descriptions are furnished to FRANK LESLIE by the Police Commissioners, so that everything which appears in his columns upon the subject will be officially correct.

This great and beneficial public movement will be commenced in the next number of "FRANK LESLIE'S ILLUSTRATED NEWSPAPER;" three portraits of missing people will appear, together with illustrations of the Great Billiard Match in Detroit; illustrations of the Swill Milk Report of the Academy of Medicine, sustaining all that LESLIE said about that mulderous traffic, and a large number of other illustrations, tales, stories, &c.

CLARKE'S Indellible Pencil for Marking Clothing. This article has the following claims to public attention: It can be used with great ease in writing upon all kinds of fabrics, will not dry up like ink, will sharpen well without breaking in being used as a pencil. One box of pencils will mark 2000 articles, and is much cheaper than any other article in the market, is convenient to carry, and will make a clear, black mark that will hold for years. Many persons have found it very difficult to procure an article that will be permanent—they will find the above article all they desire. Try it, and know for yourselves.

Every Pencil is warranted to be as represented.

See that the Pencils are stamped "E. P. Clarke's Patent Pen."

Manufactured by E. P. CLARKE, Northampton, Mass.

Mr. L. H. CLAPP has secured the agency, and will call upon our citizens in a few days.

CURTIS'S CURE FOR BALDNESS.

In bringing this new article—a preventive, and sure Cure for Baldness—into notice, the proprietor has acted with extreme caution, knowing that the public, having been so often deceived by worthless compounds and preparations for the hair, are prone to pronounce—a humbug—every new thing of the kind introduced, and he has not taken this course to bring it before them until its virtues have been practically and most thoroughly tested. As an effectual remedy for Baldness it now stands unrivalled. It has been in use for about a year, during which time upwards of six hundred bottles have been disposed of, and not in a single instance, where a fair trial has been had, has it proved unsuccessful. The proprietor, who is a well-known resident of Providence, R. I., refers to his own case as a proof of its efficacy.

One year since he was entirely bald, but after the application of his Cure, the hair started out in profusion, and he has now as fine a growth as when a young man. There are numerous other cases of a like nature, and he is permitted to refer to many well-known citizens of Boston, Providence and Worcester who have used the article with the most complete success. Its action is immediate, producing a fine growth of hair, and yet it is entirely free from any substance of an injurious nature.

It also prevents the hair from falling off, cleanses the scalp, removing dandruff almost instantaneously, and removes from the head the excessive heat with which bald persons are generally troubled.

It is certainly the best and safest preparation for the hair ever offered to the public.

Among the many certificates of its efficacy, attention is called to the following:—

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 1, 1858.

I commenced using Curtis's Cure for Baldness some five months since, previous to which time much the larger portion of my head had been bald for nine years. After a few weeks use, the hair commenced growing, and has continued since until my head is now entirely covered. I am forty-eight years of age, and the "Cure" in my case having met with complete success, I take pleasure in recommending it, and will state the above facts personally to any who are interested and will call upon me.
ELISHA SMITH, 119 Friendship street.

And this from Mr. Samuel Woodbury, Manufacturing Jeweler of Providence, and well known in that city:—

For some twelve years my hair was continually falling out until the top of my head was entirely bald. Some nine months since I commenced using Curtis's Cure, which soon prevented the old hair from falling and has since covered my head with a fine growth of hair. I recommend it with full confidence to all those who have lost their hair prematurely.
SAMUEL WOODBURY,
51 Friendship st., Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. R. M. Clarke, Millinery Rooms, corner Westminster and Eddy streets, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 29, 1858.

I have been using Curtis's Cure for Baldness and find it to be the best article I have ever tried for promoting the growth of the hair and keeping the head in a clean condition.
MRS. REBECCA M. CLARKE.

Medicines.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR.
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD.
Compounded Entirely from Gums,

IS One of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two tea-spoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

TESTIMONIALS.

Richmond, McHenry Co., Ill., Dec. 8, 1858.

Dr. S. T. W. SANFORD—Dear Sir:—I am here on my mission ground, and feel myself under great obligation to your Medicine for bringing me here, fitted for active service. I have used it myself and given it to my family, and have found it to be all that is recommended to be—a specific for Head Ache, and Dyspepsia, and Jaundice. I have used it freely, and used it all; but am afraid if I fare as others do, I shall be obliged to test its efficacy in Fever and Ague. I have looked in several Apothecary Shops here, and do not find it; it should be here.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
REV. L. R. LOCKWOOD.

Dec. 20th, 1858.

I have used the Liver Invigorator, prepared by Dr. Sanford, in my family during the past Summer, and have found it to be a Medicine of great value for the purposes for which it is recommended. It has also been used by others in my congregation, from whom it has received high commendation.

Gents:—I have the pleasure to assure you that the Sanford's Liver Invigorator purchased of you for use in my family, has proved equal to my highest expectations, and I have recommended it to many of my friends similarly afflicted. I feel that it is almost a specific in such complaints, and am willing that you should use my name for the good of the afflicted, if by so doing they may be induced.

Certificate.—I have used your valuable medicine in my own family with great success and I have mentioned it in the local columns of my paper. I am, generally speaking, opposed to patent medicines, but your Invigorator makes an honorable exception.—By it my wife was entirely cured of twenty years' sick head-ache. With highest regard yours most obediently,

"It is with singular satisfaction that I hand a bottle of your Cod Liver Oil to a consumer, it is so sweet and beautiful" says HUBBELL, Chemist, of Philadelphia.

HAZARD & CASWELL'S
PURE AND GENUINE
LIGHT STRAW COLORED MEDICAL

COD LIVER OIL,

PREPARED FROM SELECTED
LIVERS ONLY.

The universal demand for an article of Cod Liver Oil that could be depended upon as strictly pure and scientifically prepared, having been long felt by the Medical Profession, we were induced to undertake its manufacture at the FISHING STATIONS, where the fish are brought to land every few hours, and the livers, consequently, are in great perfection. Its manufacture is personally superintended by our Mr. Caswell, and every gallon made is closely scrutinized.

We therefore combine the advantages of using perfectly fresh and healthy livers, with scientific and careful preparation, and feel assured that practitioner and patient alike, will hail this accession to the list of reliable remedies with satisfaction.

It is a well known fact that nearly all the Oil brought to market, even the light colored, has been prepared by fishermen themselves, using all livers indiscriminately in its preparation, while a large proportion of the livers, even in a fresh state are diseased, and are always rejected by us. They generally also keep the livers for one or more days, until partial decomposition occurs, and then if the result is sour, they counteract it by the addition of potash or soda. These differences, while they are of the utmost importance, cannot be detected, except by the most practised observer, without chemical analysis.—This is the history of nearly all the light-colored Oil in market, and is even more true of the dark Oils; therefore, the only possible safeguard to the consumer is to obtain Oil prepared under the personal supervision of a chemist.

No argument is needed to prove the value of Cod Liver Oil, in its pure state, as a remedy. The fact is so generally admitted, as to render such a work unnecessary.

As a remedy for the class of diseases for which it is recommended, it has no rival. Its efficacy probably depends upon—

1st. Its highly nutritive qualities; its pre-eminence as a fattening agent, developing the muscular strength, and increasing the quantity and quality of blood; stimulating the action of the liver, and increasing the power of digestion.

2d. The combined action of the several remedial agents which exist in the Oil, in a state of combination, and which act more efficiently than when artificially combined; among which Iodine, Chlorine, Bromine, Phosphorus, Magnesia, Lime, Soda, Iron, and the "Gaduin" of Dr. DeJongh, are the most conspicuous.

The result is, that while the nutritive process is going on, fortifying the system, and strengthening the whole organization, the medicinal properties are removing from the system the accumulated tuberculous matter, (if any,) and preventing its formation, if not already existing.

TESTIMONIAL

From Professor A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts:

GENTLEMEN:—I have subjected to chemical analysis the Cod Liver Oil prepared and put up for sale by Messrs. Hazard & Caswell of Newport, R. I. It proves to contain, unaltered, the Iodic compounds, essential to efficiency of action; and in comparison with the finest specimens I have seen of foreign or domestic origin, it takes the highest place.

The importance of having a reliable source from which this valuable remedy, in a state of purity, can be obtained, leads me to recommend, with confidence, this excellent article. Respectfully.

A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to State of Massachusetts.

The testimony of every Resident Physician corresponds with the opinion of Professor Hayes, viz.:

James V. Turner, M. D., Theo. C. Dunn, M. D., David King, M. D., H. E. Turner, M. D., Daniel Watson, M. D., W. Argyle Watson, M. D., Samuel W. Butler, M. D.

Professor Parker, in the "American Medical Monthly," says:—

"We have had patients use it, who had tried almost every manufacturer's oil, and give this the decided preference. It is easily digested, and does what is expected of it. It is of a light straw-color, has none of the rancid fish odor, but is sweet and pleasant."

Professors Palmer and Gunn, in the "Peninsular Medical Monthly," say:

"We pronounce it to be a free from odor, color and taste, as Cod Liver Oil seemingly can be."

Our Oil, if not too long kept by the dealer, is perfectly sweet and palatable, not requiring to be manufactured into emulsions or jellies, to conceal a nauseous taste, as inferior Oils do.

The testimony of hundreds, to the same effect, can be presented, but any one acquainted with the sensible properties of the Oil will at once perceive its great superiority over any heretofore offered to the public. Be certain to observe on the label of each bottle, the signature of Hazard & Caswell, and also upon the metallic capsule covering the cork.

Address, HAZARD & CASWELL,

A [illegible] distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

THE Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases in all their forms and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their annual report upon the treatment of sexual diseases, for the year ending July 1st, 1858, expresses the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the consulting surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœ, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or self abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal to this very important but much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed envelope,) free of charge, on the receipt of two stamps for postage.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. George R. Calhoun, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

GRAND MEDICAL HOUSE
AND OFFICE,

NO. 7. ENDICOTT-ST., BOSTON. NO. 7.
Established for the permanent cure of all Private Diseases and the Suppression of Quackery.

DR. DOW, so well known for the last fifteen years in this city, where he has confined his practice to the treatment of mercurial, syphilitic and other diseases of a private nature, is consulted above, from nine in the morning till seven in the evening. Patients must call during office hours. Office not open on Sundays.

All chronic and difficult cases, such as have existed for years, are completely and permanently cured in the shortest possible time by the Doctor's improved course of treatment.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—As it is always important to obtain the services of an experienced and skillful physician call on the celebrated Dr. Dow, No. 7, Endicott street.—Med. and Surg. Jour.

DR. DOW will say nothing of his qualifications as a Physician and Surgeon, being a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Licentiate of the State Medical Society of N. Y., and for more than twelve years a practitioner of this city, during which time he has no doubt cured more of those difficult and chronic cases (such as nothing but practical experience can ensure success) than by other physicians in Boston.

By his late improved course of practice, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and other local affections of the urinary and seminal organs, are cured in a very few days without mercury, regard to diet or fear of exposure.

SECONDARY SYPHILIS, &c.

Scrofulous affections, ulcers in the throat or neck, nodes and caries of the bones, eruptions on the skin, and every impurity of the blood thoroughly and completely eradicated. Persons afflicted with any private complaints should call as early as possible after contracting the disease, as much time and money may be saved thereby.

TO YOUNG MEN.—You who are troubled with seminal weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are nocturnal emmissions, pains and dizziness in the head, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, &c., terminating in consumption or insanity, if neglected, are speedily and permanently cured by Dr. Dow.

TO MIDDLE-AGED OR EVEN OLD MEN, whose procreative organs have become inactive or weakened by the excesses of any kind, but especially bad habits in youth, Dr. DOW would respectfully say that from the extensive practice which he has had in treating the above complaint for over fourteen years, he is enabled to guarantee a perfect cure in all cases; that is, a restoration of those organs to their natural and healthy state. Hardly a day passes that he is not called upon to cure the above complaints, and he is happy to say that his course of treatment has invariably effected a speedy cure.

Beware of all kinds of Exhilerating Cordials, as they are of no use.

To the unhealthy, the mere mention of the name of the far-famed and justly popular physician, Dr. Dow, that he can at all times be found at home that he is surpassed by none in curing all forms of disease however protracted, ill-treated, or mercurily affected, is a consolation to his patients, and an honor to himself.—Balt. Amer.

All afflicted with private complaints, if possible, should consult Dr. Dow, whose medical education is not surpassed by any physician in the country. In his skill, honor and integrity, all may rely with safety, while most all of the medical practitioners are without honesty or responsibility, their pretensions being grounded in ignorance and assumption.—Republican Argus.

There are a great many young men whose cases have become very difficult of cure, either from neglect or ill-treatment. We would advise all such to call on Dr. Dow, of Boston, whose practical experience in certain diseases no doubt exceeds that of any other physician in America.—Journal of Health.

Dr. Dow consults with physicians, as usual, in difficult chronic diseases. Charges reasonable.

TO FEMALES.

All diseases peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, &c., speedily and effectually removed. The efficacy of his remedies for the cure of the above affections, has been well tested in his extensive practice for the last fifteen years in this city, and never was known to fail in effecting a cure where the directions were followed a reasonable time.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCA's Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting regulating, and removing all obstruction from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive.—Price $1 per box. For sale at 132 Thames street, corner Church street, and at 12 Washington Square, opposite State House. Orders for the trade addressed will be supplied at lowest manufacturer's prices. Ladies by enclosing $1 to STURGIS & CO., Box 801, Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country a26—

THE LADIES [illegible] Dr. Hughes particularly requests all ladies who may need a medical or surgical adviser, to call at his rooms, No. 13 Howard street, Boston, which they will find arranged for their especial accommodation.

Dr. Hughes having devoted over 20 years to this particular branch of the treatment of diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all, (both in this country and Europe,) that he excels all the other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

Dr. Hughes French Renovating or Female Monthly Pills are to be had genuine only at this office.

These pills are unrivaled in efficacy and superior virtues in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a very short time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practised by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders, who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the old doctor at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country, with directions.

The best of accommodations furnished for the sick, with kind and attentive nurses, if they wish, at a reasonable rate.

This office is strictly private, with special apartments for ladies, and is so arranged that it is impossible for patients to come in contact with each other.

Recollect the number—13 Howard street.

CONFIDENTIALLY to the afflicted.—Dr. J. B. Hughes still continues his old establishment, 21 Howard Street, Boston, where he can be consulted on all private complaints. All persons in any way afflicted may rely on a sure and speedy cure being performed.

Dr. Hughes has for a number of years paid particular attention to the study and practice of private diseases, and so perfect has he become acquainted with them, that, without boasting, he will warrant an effectual cure in the shortest possible time, no matter how long standing the case may be.

In offering the result of his long study and practical experience to the afflicted, he is governed by humanity only, for so long have they been deceived by miserable quack nostrums, that it is time that some healthy mode of practice should be introduced.

The old doctor professed to be eminently skillful in curing gonorrhoea gleet, strictures, syphilis in all its stages, primary, secondary, teriary, or hereditary seminal weakness, nocturnal emissions, general debility, impotency, and all diseases of the urinary organs. The doctor solicits a call from all who may be afflicted with any such disease, feeling confident of success, and at a great saving of time and money to his patients.

The doctor can be consulted by letter, if the disease is accurately described, medicines will be immediately forwarded, carefully concealed.

Please remember the name and No., as Dr. Hughes has nothing to do with any other office but 13 Howard st.

P. S. The best accommodations will be furnished the sick of both sexes, with kind and attentive nurses, and at a reasonable rate.

All letters requiring advice must contain one dollar, or no notice will be taken of them. Address Dr. J. B. Hughes, 13 Howard st., Boston. jy1 1y d
